

Disciplinary Tribunal Procedure

The Authority of this tribunal is defined under TRIBUNALS AND JUDICIAL PROCEDURES in the AKA manual and its purpose is to adjudicate as a Disciplinary Tribunal on cases brought before it by Officials of the AKA.

The duties of this Tribunal are: -

- To determine if a complaint against you is proved and if so, to impose appropriate penalties.

The Tribunal takes the authority to conduct these proceedings under the NCR s of the Australian Karting Association.

(to defendant)

- Do you object to any of the members who constitute this tribunal?
If “NO” proceed.
If “YES” , on what grounds ? ( defendant to state ) Decision on eligibility.
- Introduction of defendant [ Details from relevant form – AKA 13]
- Is leave requested for an advocate?
- How does the defendant plead to the complaint /s?
- Prosecution proceeds with evidence on the alleged breach.
- Defence proceeds with evidence in rebuttal of prosecution’s case.
- Defence to address the tribunal, summarising the case for the defendant.
- Prosecution to address the tribunal, summarising the case against the defendant.
- The tribunal will then adjourn to determine the guilt or otherwise of the accused.
If the tribunal finds complaint/s not proved, dismiss the complaint/s.

If complaint/s are proved, announce findings of “guilt” and hear argument on the question of penalty from the prosecution.
The findings / penalty shall be recorded in writing. ( Form AKA 23a )
- The tribunal to resume meeting and announce its decision and penalties (if any).
- (To defendant) – You are reminded of your right to appeal against the decision by this Disciplinary Tribunal to the AKA Appeals Tribunal if you so wish, as provided for in the APPEALS section of the A.K.A. Manual.
- Declare proceedings closed